LOUIS GARNEAU MOAB LITE GLOVE RRP $59.90

Full finger gloves are the way to go for mountain bikers, but not everyone likes the bulk associated with some models. Louis Garneau's Moab Lite is just that. Lite, not Moab. How can something be Moab? Maybe if you were riding on a cool, slick, rock-based trail you could say, "duuude, that was totally Moab." Then expect a punch in the face. From an LG-gloved fist, of course. Now that would be totally Moab. www.cycletech.co.nz
